

Sapoznik Insurance Welcomes Anthony Zannini as New Chief Operations Officer and Chief Human Resources Officer

Anthony will serve as a strategic adviser to the C-suite and provide executive leadership in all facets of Human Capital, Administration, and Operations.

Miami, FL. — June 24, 2019: Sapoznik Insurance is pleased to announce Anthony Zannini in a newly defined position as Chief Operations Officer and Chief Human Resources Officer. Anthony joins Sapoznik with over ten years' experience at EmblemHealth serving as the Director of Human Resources, Labor Relations and Support Services, and seven years as Vice President of Human Resources & Operations at US Gas & Electric. The move adds to Sapoznik's executive team, and with Anthony's deep experience successfully executing on complex business decisions with a people-centric approach, he will play a fundamental role in Sapoznik's continued growth.

This new position will play a pivotal role in supporting business goals and cultivating a work atmosphere and infrastructure that maximizes the workforce. Thus, we decided to search for a person with expertise in both areas and created a combined role of Chief Operations Officer/Chief Human Resources Officer.

"We are ecstatic to have a person with this level of experience join Team Sapoznik," said Rachel Sapoznik, CEO and Founder of Sapoznik Insurance. "Anthony comes to us with lots of expertise in driving strategy, creating value, improving operational efficiencies, business expansion, and human capital planning. We firmly believe he will catapult our company to new heights of success."

A native Bostonian, Anthony has been living in South Florida for 40 years and has adopted the lifestyle seamlessly. He graduated from FIU with a Bachelor of Science in Biological Sciences and a minor in Psychology. Anthony is a certified Six Sigma Green Belt. He is a third-degree black belt in Shotokan Karate, is the proud father of a firefighter/paramedic, is a lifelong fitness and sports buff, holds two patents for exercise equipment and is a member of the South Florida Inventors Society.
